1 Corinthians 15:35-58 Contrasts

(35) But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?" (36) You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. (37) And what you sow is not the body that is to be, but a bare kernel, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. (38) But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body.

(39) For not all flesh is the same, but there is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.  (40) There are heavenly bodies  and earthly bodies,  but the glory of the heavenly is of one kind,  and the glory of the earthly is of another.  (41) There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.  (42) So is it with the resurrection of the dead.  What is sown is perishable;  what is raised is imperishable.  (43) It is sown in dishonor;  it is raised in glory.  It is sown a natural body;  if there is a natural body,  if there is a natural body,  (45) Thus it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being (soul)";  (46) But it is not the spiritual that is first but the natural, and then the spiritual.  (47) The first man was from the earth, a man of dust;  (48) As was the man of dust, so also are those who are of the dust,  (49) Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.  (50) I tell you this, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the imperishable.  (51) Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,  (52) in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed.  (52) I no mimortality.  put on immortality.
